Recent projects on Historic Buildings and Contexts
Saturday 23 March 2019 9.30 am to 4.30 pm

York St John University, De Grey Lecture Theatre, York

The theme for this Day School is an update on projects involving historic and vernacular buildings in Yorkshire, either in progress or recently completed.

The venue is the De Grey Lecture Theatre of the York St John University in York - see map overleaf. Tea, coffee and biscuits on arrival, a buffet-style sandwich lunch, and other refreshments at intervals through the day are all included. The programme may be subject to change.

The talks start at 10.00 am after registration. The Day School will be followed at 4.30 pm by the AGM of the YVBSG.
